[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING STIPULATION REGARDING PREJUDICIAL STATEMENTS ABOUT INSURANCE COMPANIES

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff Fair Isaac Corporation's and Defendants Federal Insurance Company's and ACE American Insurance Company's Stipulation Regarding Prejudicial Statements About Insurance Companies.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

- 1) The Parties' Stipulation Regarding Prejudicial Statements About Insurance Companies is GRANTED and Defendants' Motion in Limine to Preclude Unfairly Prejudicial Arguments and Evidence Regarding Their Status as Insurance Companies filed at Dkt. Nos. 985 and 986 is WITHDRAWN;
- 2) Plaintiff will refrain from making prejudicial statements about insurance companies' general industry business conduct before the jury in this matter, including the following specific statements or arguments:
  - a) Insurance companies are less likely than other parties to pay what they owe;

- b) Insurance companies are better able than other parties to absorb an adverse judgment;
- c) Insurance companies are unsympathetic; and
- d) Insurance companies in general tend to conduct business in an unfair or unfavorable manner.

SO ORDERED:
